As a volunteer, Sampoorna Shiksha enables me to do my duty towards society no matter where I am on the Earth. The fact that they have such a widespread network of schools and so many varied opportunities to volunteer, means that the gap between the intent to volunteer and the act itself, is minimized, if not eliminated.

I admire their efforts to constantly create meaning and bring development in every aspect of education and upskilling. They play an instrumental role in honing the next generation of an enlightened India, and I hope to continue contributing in any way possible. Godspeed!

-Shivani Deo (HR Professional & Engineer)
